Call for Papers

The Organizing Committee of the 9th ISK Africa Regional Conference (9th ISK ARC 2024) invites paper submissions from undergraduate, postgraduate and researchers engaged in projects related to Land and the Built Environment. The conference aims to bring together emerging scholars and professionals to share their innovative research, discuss current trends, and explore challenges in the land and the built environment.

Topics of Interest

The Institution welcomes papers on a wide range of topics related to Land and the Built Environment, including but not limited to the following conference themes:

- Sustainability in the land and built environment;
- Sustainable development practices;
- Technological advancements in Surveying/Geoinformatics;
- Land policy and governance;
- Sustainable land use and management practices;
- Inclusivity, Diversity, Equity and NextGen; and
- Green Financing

Presentation Format

- Eligibility: Submissions are open to undergraduate and postgraduate students currently enrolled in accredited institutions and researchers
- Paper Length: Full papers should not exceed 8 pages (including figures, tables, and references). Short papers should not be less than 4 pages.
- Format: Papers must be submitted in the conference's prescribed format. (Templates will be shared)
- Abstract Submission Deadline: 23rd September, 2024
- Notification of Acceptance: 30th September 2024
- Final Submission (Paper and Presentation): 18th October 2024

Presentation Format

Selected papers will be presented during the conference in one of the following formats:

- Oral Presentation: 15-minute presentation followed by a 5-minute Q&A.
- Powerpoint Presentation: Powerpoint presentation to be displayed at the Conference and to be shared with delegates afterwards.

Benefits

- Official Certification: Presenters will receive formal recognition from the institution through certification, acknowledging their contributions;
- Opportunities for Dissemination: The conference provides a platform for researchers to share their findings and ideas, enhancing the reach and impact of their work;
- Increased Professional Visibility: Presenting at the conference will elevate the professional profile of participants, allowing them to connect with a broader audience in their field; and
- Award of 20 CPD Points for ISK Members.

How to Submit

All submissions must be made via training@isk.or.ke.
